2. When adjudicating on a case in respect of which a lawyer is appointed, the court shall determine the latter's fees, and its decision in this regard shall be conclusive. The Executive Regulations of this Decree Law shall determine the controls for determining the fees of Lawyers appointed to handle criminal proceedings and the payment mechanism thereof.

Article (35)

1. The Lawyer appointed in accordance with Article (34) of this Decree Law shall carry out the duties assigned to him / her, and may only step down for any reasons admitted by the court.
2. The court shall take disciplinary measures any Lawyer who either refuses to abide by the appointment decision without a lawful reason or excuse or fails to properly perform his / her professional duties.

Article (36)

1. The Lawyer shall submit to the court his / her duly attested power of attorney at the first hearing he attends on behalf of his / her client, unless the court approves the submission of the same at the following hearing.
2. If the power of attorney is of a limited nature, it shall be kept in the case file, and if the same is of a general nature, only its number, date, and issuing authority shall be recorded in the transcript of the hearing and a copy thereof shall be kept in the case file.
3. If the client appears alongside the lawyer in the criminal case, the judge shall record the same in the transcript of the hearing, and such appearance shall be valid in lieu of the power of attorney.

Article (37)

1. When the legal representation is completed, the Lawyer shall return to his / her client the power of attorney together with the original documents and paperwork belonging to the client if requested by the latter.
2. If the Lawyer has not received his professional fees, he may obtain, at the expense of his / her client, photocopies of all paperwork that could be used as a ground for claiming his / her professional fees.
3. The obligation provided for in Clause (1) of this Article shall not include the delivery to the client of the draft paperwork issued by the client in respect of the case, the letters received by the lawyer from the client, or the documents relating to the activities performed by the lawyer on his / her client's behalf, as long as the lawyer has not received his / her professional fees for any such activities.
4. The client's right to request that the Lawyer deliver back to him / her the documents and paperwork, which were initially handed over to the lawyer, shall lapse either in the event that the client fails to pay full professional fees of the lawyer or after the passage of five (5) years following the date of termination of their relationship, unless otherwise agreed between them.

Article (38)

1. If the Lawyer wishes to step down or to have his / her legal representation for the client terminated, he / she shall notify his / her client or the latter's representative either by registered post with acknowledgment due or via e-mail, as the case may be. In addition, the lawyer shall continue to handle the case procedures for not more than one month following the date of sending the aforementioned notice, whenever the same is necessary to defend the interests of the client or its representative, unless the client or the court notifies the lawyer that the termination is accepted.

2. If the Lawyer steps down or requests the termination of his / her legal representation for the client when the case is being processed, he / she shall deliver to his / her client the power of attorney, the original documents and paperwork and fees paid upfront, unless otherwise agreed.
3. In all cases, the lawyer shall not be allowed to step down if the case is set for adjudication, without the approval of the court hearing the underlying case.

Article (39)

1. The Lawyer may not engage in any activity that goes against the dignity or norms of the legal profession, shall perform his / her duties honorably and honestly, and shall abide by the ethics and professional conduct of the legal profession, including, in particular, those provided for in this Decree Law and its Executive Regulations and the Code.
2. Upon dealing with members of the judicial authority, the Lawyer shall act in a decent manner that observes the dignity and standing of the judicial authority, and shall avoid anything that may preclude the adjudication on cases or disturb the rule of law.

Article (40)

The Lawyer shall neither accept, nor continue to perform, legal representation with respect to a case or legal procedure before any judge or public prosecution member with whom the lawyer knowingly has any relationship by marriage or blood up the fourth degree, even if the adverse party of his / her client accepts the same.

Article (41)

Any person, who had occupied a public or private job and left the same, and is currently practicing the legal profession, shall not accept the legal representation, whether by himself / herself or through any lawyer acting on his / her behalf, in respect of any case against his / her former employer, within the year following the date of leaving his / her job, unless the merits of the underlying case are relating to anything falling under his / her responsibility or in respect of which he had performed any action with the former employer. In the latter case, the lawyer shall never accept the legal representation whether by himself / herself or through any lawyer acting on his / her behalf.

Article (42)

1. The Lawyer shall be prohibited from engaging in business activities.
2. The Lawyer may own and invest in financial and real estate assets.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause (1) of this Article, the Lawyer may engage in the business activities specified by the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law.
4. The Lawyer may be a founder, shareholder or partner of any company in respect of which his / her liability is limited to the capital contribution provided by him / her.

Article (43)

The Lawyer may not accept the legal representation in respect of any legal proceeding against any person or entity that had previously consulted him / her and allowed him / her to get access to its documents and aspects of defense.

Article (44)

The Lawyer shall refrain from giving statements about the facts or information that comes to his / her knowledge ex officio, unless the owner of such information accepts the same.

Article (45)

1. The Lawyer shall be prohibited from:
 - a. Disclosing any secret entrusted to him / her, whether orally, in writing or via e-mail, means of modern technology or any other means of communication, or which comes to his / her knowledge ex officio, unless the disclosure of the same would prevent the - commission of an offense affecting a person's life or safety or would cause serious damage to a person's property, or unless the disclosure of the same is an obligatory duty under the laws in force in the State;

- b. Revealing the personal matters that offend or spoil the reputation, honor or dignity of the adverse parties, attorneys or witnesses, unless the same is necessary to defend the interests of his / her client;
 - c. Disclosing any information about the cases assigned to him / her or any secret entrusted to him / her;
 - d. Abusing the right to litigation, including prolongation of the proceedings;
 - e. Deceiving or misleading his / her client in any way;
 - f. Providing any assistance, even in the form of advice, to his / her client's adverse party in respect of the same dispute in question or any dispute thereto related, even after the legal representation for such a client ends;
 - g. Accepting the legal representation in respect of any legal proceeding that had already been handled by him / her or which falls within the scope of his / her area of competence for the jobs covered by the provisions of Article (14) hereof; or
 - h. Promoting, or attempting to promote, himself / herself in any manner that goes against the ethics of the profession, by any means of promotion or enticement by intermediaries. The Executive Regulations of this Decree Law shall determine the controls and means of promotion.
2. Whoever violates the provisions of Clause (1) of this Article shall be subject to the disciplinary measures, without prejudice to any other penalties set forth in this Decree Law and the laws in force in the State.

Chapter Three

Legal fees

Article (46)

1. The Lawyer shall have the right to receive legal fees for the professional activities he/she performs within the limits of his / her power of attorney, and may recover the expenses he/she incurs as required for handling the cases or duties assigned to him / her.

2. The retainer agreement shall be executed in writing by any means prior to the performance of the agreed upon work, and the legal fee shall become due according to such an agreement.

Article (47)

The following aspects shall be taken into account upon determining the effort and estimating the legal fees due:

1. The type and nature of the work assigned to the Lawyer, the estimated effort and the skills required to perform the same;
2. The expected time required by the lawyer to complete the work;
3. The importance of the case or the interests involved in the dispute;
4. The lawyer's experience, standing, seniority, degree of registration, and the reputation and prestige of his / her law firm; and
5. Expenses of the lawyer's firm for gathering the information, and other costs and encumbrances.

Article (48)

Legal fees may be agreed upon in advance depending on the type, nature or circumstances of the work assigned to the Lawyer, or according to the hourly rate system adopted by the firm for the handling and completion of the underlying work.

Article (49)

1. The retainer agreement shall set out the details of the work assigned to the Lawyer, as well as its requirements in accordance with the law, customary practice and the nature of such work;
2. The retainer agreement may be relating to a legal proceeding, the execution or review of a contract or agreement, the giving of a legal opinion or advice, a stage of the legal proceeding such as appealing a judgment by any means of appeal or the initiation of enforcement procedures, or just a specific procedural action in respect of any existing legal proceeding, and the legal fees shall become due according to the agreement.

3. In the absence of a retainer agreement, the legal fees shall become due as follows:
 - a. If the work assigned to the lawyer is relating to a particular legal proceeding or any phase thereof, such as appealing the judgment by any means of appeal, the lawyer shall, as a prerequisite to be entitled to the legal fees, handle the procedures on behalf of his / her client in respect of such a legal proceeding until both a judgment is rendered on the merits thereof at the litigation instance for which the lawyer is appointed, and such a judgment is served upon the adverse party;
 - b. If the work assigned to the lawyer is relating to enforcement procedures of a legal proceeding, the lawyer shall, as a prerequisite to be entitled to the legal fees, handle the enforcement procedures on behalf of his / her client until a final judgment is rendered by the court or where the enforcement procedures could not be completed due to any reasons beyond the reasonable will of the lawyer, and after exhausting all legal procedures of enforcement; or
 - c. If the work assigned to the lawyer is relating to a specific procedural task in respect of a pending legal proceeding or a specific procedure in respect of any enforcement matter, the lawyer shall, as a prerequisite to be entitled to the legal fees, complete the work assigned to him / her.
4. If the lawyer-client agreement provides that the legal fees shall be a percentage of the court-awarded amount, such a percentage shall not exceed (25%) of the value of the court-awarded amount, and the Executive Regulations hereof shall determine the conditions governing the lawyer's eligibility to receive such fees. In which case, no fees shall be due to the lawyer if the latter loses the underlying legal proceeding.

Article (51)

If the lawyer is hired by several clients, each client shall be liable for his / her share in the legal fees, with the exception of cases where each client undertakes to pay full fees to the lawyer if either the subject of the work is indivisible or they agree under the retainer agreement to jointly pay the legal fees. Any client who pays off the debt in either case shall claim from the remaining clients the payment of their respective shares.

Article (52)

If there are several lawyers handling a single case and are belonging to different law firms, each lawyer of them shall be entitled to receive his / her fees according to the retainer agreement. In which case, the resignation or stepping down of any lawyer of them shall not affect the legal representation of the other lawyers, unless the power of attorney stipulates that all lawyers must jointly handle the same case.

Article (52)

1. The lawyer shall receive his / her fees according to the retainer agreement with the client. In addition, the Court that hears the case shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to reduce, at the client's request, the agreed fees of the lawyer, if the court is convinced that such fees are overestimated compared to the effort of the case and the benefit generated by the client. Moreover, the Court may increase the value of the agreed fees at the request of the lawyer if the latter makes effort and dedicates time for the underlying case in excess of the effort and time initially estimated as being required from the lawyer under the agreement and according to the consideration set forth in Article (47) of this Decree Law.
2. The legal fees may neither be reduced nor increased if their value is agreed upon after the agreed work is completed.
3. In the absence of a retainer agreement, or of the retainer agreement is null and void, the Court that hears the case shall, where there is a matter of disagreement, determine the fees due to the lawyer in the light of the effort made by the lawyer and the benefit generated by the client.
4. In all cases, the fees estimate application set forth in Clauses (1) and (3) of this Article shall be submitted to the Court under a petition that is subject to the procedures and controls of the writs on petitions referred to in the Civil Procedure Law and its Executive Regulations, and shall be served upon the adverse party.
5. The lawyer and client shall each have the right to file a grievance against the fees estimate writ within fifteen (15) days following the date of being notified of the underlying writ, by requiring its adverse party to appear before the court issuing the writ. Such a grievance shall be heard on an urgent basis.

6. If the legal fees that are a matter of disagreement belong to any work that has nothing to do with the legal proceeding heard by the court, the lawyer and client may each institute a case for estimating and claiming the legal fees according to the standard rules for instituting the case.

Article (53)

1. The lawyer's right to claim his / her legal fees shall lapse upon the passage of three (3) years following the termination date of the legal representation, the completion date of the underlying work or the date of removal of the lawyer, in the absence of any lawful excuse, whether the agreement is of an oral or written nature.
2. Where there are several tasks assigned to the lawyer, the prescriptive period set out in the foregoing clause shall apply to every task thereof on a case-by-case basis. Notwithstanding this stipulation, the prescriptive period shall only apply after the last of such tasks is completed, in the event that the underlying tasks are inseparably interconnected, or if it explicitly agreed that the fees shall only become due after all tasks are completed.

Article (54)

1. If the case assigned to the lawyer is finalized by amicable settlement as authorized by the client, the lawyer shall be entitled to full legal fees unless otherwise agreed with the client.
2. If the case covered by the agreement gives rise to legal proceedings and activities that have not been taken into consideration upon executing the agreement, the lawyer may claim legal fees for the same.

Article (55)

The lawyer may not assign all or any part of the rights in dispute.

Article (56)

The lawyers' legal fees and relevant expenses shall have a lien that is ranked directly next to the government's rights over the client's gains resulting from the lawyer's effort or from the judgment on the legal proceeding in question.

Article (57)

1. If the client removes the lawyer without a lawful reason after the lawyer has initiated the task assigned to him / her, the client shall be required to pay the full legal fees agreed upon, as if the lawyer has properly completed the whole work in favor of his / her client.
2. If the lawyer is removed before initiating the task assigned to him / her, the lawyer shall be entitled to fees for the effort made by him / her in preparation for initiating the underlying task, but not exceeding (25%) of the agreed-upon fees.
3. In the absence of a retainer agreement, a case shall be instituted for estimating and claiming the same according to the standard procedures of instituting the case.

Article (58)

1. If the client passes away and the heirs decide that the lawyer would not continue to act as their lawyer, the latter shall be entitled to legal fees for the effort made by him / her, taking into consideration the provisions of the retainer agreement between the lawyer and the deceased client, if any.
2. In the absence of a retainer agreement between the lawyer and the deceased client, the lawyer may institute a case for estimating and claiming the legal fees according to the standard procedures of instituting the case.

Part Four

Paralegals

Chapter One

Legal Researchers and Consultants

Article (59)

1. The work of the legal researcher and consultant shall be restricted to providing the legal services – not including the pleadings and legal representation before the courts and judicial committees – through the firm at which the same works. The paperwork of the legal researcher and consultant shall be issued on the law firm's letterhead and signed by a lawyer whose name is listed in the Roll of Practicing Lawyers of the same firm.
2. The legal researcher and consultant shall be prohibited from instituting or following up on the legal proceedings before the public prosecution or the courts of the State of all instances by any means whatsoever, or representing third parties before the rental dispute resolution committees or tax dispute committees or any committee of a judicial mandate.

Article (60)

1. The competent department shall keep a register for recording the names of legal researchers and consultants therein.
2. The legal researchers and consultants shall only perform their job duties after both having their names listed in the register and payment of the prescribed fees.
3. The Executive Regulations of this Decree Law shall set out the conditions, controls and procedures of listing and renewal of listing of the names in, and transfer and removal of the names from, the said register.

Article (61)

1. Upon performing their duties, the legal researcher and consultant shall abide by the principles of honor, honesty and integrity, shall safeguard the values of the profession, and shall respect its norms and ethics, relevant laws and decisions in the State, and the Code.
2. Upon performing the legal services, the legal researcher and consultant shall be prohibited from:
 - a. Signing the statements of claim and submissions to be filed with the courts of all instances;

- b. Signing retainer agreements with the clients, whether in his / her own name or in his / her capacity as a representative of the law firm;
- c. Providing legal consultations for his / her own benefit or for the benefit of any entity other than the law firm at which he / she is working;
- d. Claiming from the client an in-kind share of any right in dispute;
- e. Performing any work requested by the client if the same is involving violation of the applicable legislation in the State or of the ethics and norms of the profession; or
- f. Managing or co-managing the law firm on behalf of the firm's owner in any way whatsoever, except for the circumstances set out in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law.

Article (62)

The Competent Department may, at any point of time, verify the compliance by the legal researcher and consultant with the duties and obligations set forth in this Decree Law and its Executive Regulations and the relevant decisions. It may also request that any documents or paperwork be provided by the affiliated firms or conduct any investigation to verify the same, after notifying the lawyer owing the firm.

Article (63)

The practicing legal consultant, who encounters any compelling circumstance that would preclude him / her from the practicing the profession, may submit an application to the Department in order to have his / her name moved to the Register of Non-Practicing Legal Consultants within thirty (30) days according to the controls set out in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law. Once the compelling circumstance ceases to exist, the legal consultant concerned may submit an application to have his / her name moved back to the Register of Practicing Legal Consultants.

Chapter Two

Representatives

Article (64)

1. The Competent Department shall keep a register that contains the names of representatives working at the law firms, in order to accept their dealings with the federal judicial authorities and competent bodies.
2. The representative shall only perform his / her job duties at the law firm only after his / her name is listed in the said register.
3. The Executive Regulations of this Decree Law shall set out the conditions, controls and procedures for listing the representatives' names in the said register and removing such names from the same.
4. The Competent Department may, at any point of time, verify the compliance by the representatives with the duties and obligations set forth in this Decree Law and its Executive Regulations, and may request that any documents or paperwork be provided by the law firms and their representatives, or conduct any investigation to verify the same such compliance.
5. The representative or the lawyer owning the law firm at which the representative works, as the case may be, file a grievance against the decisions issued by the Competent Department according to the procedures set out in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law.

Article (65)

The period of listing the representative's name in the Register shall be three (3) years renewable for further similar periods against the prescribed fees, and the Executive Regulations shall determine the requirements to be satisfied for the listing, and renewal of listing, of the representatives' names in the said register.

Article (66)

Upon performing his / her job duties, the representative shall abide by the principles of honor, honesty and integrity, shall safeguard the values of the profession, and shall respect its norms and ethics, and relevant laws and decisions in force in the State. In particular, the representative shall:

1. Ensure that his / her work is performed in favor of the employer firm, and not in favor of his / her personal interest or the interest of any third party; and
2. Respect the judges and their assistants.

Article (67)

The representative shall be prohibited from:

1. Pleading before the courts or public prosecution, or drawing up or signing any submissions or statements of claim;
2. Delivering the representation deeds to the lawyers within the courtrooms;
3. Disclosing the secrets that come to his / her knowledge ex officio, unless such disclosure would preclude the commission of a crime;
4. Promoting the law firm at the buildings of courts and public prosecutions or at any other competent administrative authority;
5. Communicating with the court judges or members of the public prosecution, unless such communication is based on their request; and
6. Dealing with any entity in his / her capacity as a representative once the registration period recorded in the card delivered to him / her from the competent department expires, unless the same is renewed according to the procedures and periods described in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law.

Part Five

Regulation of Law and Legal Consultation Firms and Companies

Article (68)

The lawyer shall practice the legal profession singlehandedly through his / her own law firm, in association with other lawyers whose names are listed in the Roll of Practicing Lawyers, in partnership with an international law firm under the umbrella of a professional law company, through a branch of a foreign law firm duly licensed in the State, or based on an employment contract with a law firm or company that is licensed under this Decree Law.

Article (69)

1. National citizens, who are listed in the registers of legal consultants kept with the Ministry, may be licensed to practice the legal consultation profession that is relating to the provision of non-judicial legal services, including, but not limited to, giving the legal opinion, advice and consultation, drafting and drawing up the contracts and documents and relevant legal procedures, and other profession-related services that do not require appearance with the litigants or representing them before the judicial or judicial-assigning entities.
2. The legal consultant shall practice the profession singlehandedly through his / her own firm, in association with other legal consultants whose names are listed in the registers of legal consultants with the Ministry under the umbrella of a professional legal consultation company, through a branch of a foreign legal consultation firm duly licensed in the State, or based on an employment contract with a legal consultation firm or company that is licensed under this Decree Law.
3. The owner or partners of the legal consultation firm shall not receive a license for establishing a law firm.

Article (70)

3. The cabinet shall, based upon the Minister's proposal, issue the regulations of professional law companies and legal consultation companies.

Article (76)

1. The committee may, based on a well-grounded application to be submitted thereto by the law firm or legal consultation firm, give permission to the firm to cease to provide the legal services for a specific period of time, provided that the firm furnishes an undertaking confirming the absence of any obligations on the part of the firm as a result of providing the legal services, and that there would be no harm to the clients' interests.
2. The committee may revoke the license of the firm, provided that the firm furnishes an undertaking confirming the absence of any obligations on the part of the firm as a result of providing the legal services, and that there would be no harm to the clients' interests.

Article (77)

The license of the law firm or legal consultation firm shall either be temporarily suspended by the Committee for a period not exceeding one year or be revoked by a decision of the committee under any of the following circumstances:

1. If the law firm or legal consultation firm fails to have its license renewed for a period exceeding ninety (90) days without a lawful excuse admitted by the Committee.
2. If the license granted to the firm is revoked by the licensing authority;
3. If a judicial order is issued suspending or revoking the license issued by the committee or licensing authority;
4. Liquidation of the firm;
5. If the firm merges with any other firm that practices the profession according to the procedures and conditions set out in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law; or
6. If the firm no longer satisfies, or fails to comply with, any licensing requirements, or violates the legislation in force in the State or any of the provisions set out in the Executive Regulations of this Decree Law.

Article (78)

Every stakeholder may file a written grievance with the Ministry against any of the decisions issued against himself / herself pursuant to the provisions hereof, within thirty (30) days following the date of issue of the underlying decisions. Such a grievance shall be heard and decided on by the committee whose decision shall be conclusive.

Part Seven

Judicial Assistance

Article (83)

The public prosecution or the competent court, as the case may be, shall appoint a lawyer to represent the party who is relieved of the judicial fees due to its insolvency or as a means of providing judicial assistance to the parties that are unable to handle the legal proceedings that are required by this Decree Law to be handled by a lawyer.

Article (84)

If several lawyers refuse legal representation in respect of the legal proceedings that are required by this Decree Law to be handled by a lawyer, the competent court shall, based on the interested person's request, appoint a lawyer for such purpose.

Article (85)

If the lawyer passes away, is suspended, his / her name is removed from the roll, his / her freedom is restricted, or becomes unable to conduct the legal representation, the court may, at the request of his / her client, appoint a lawyer, belonging to at least the same registration rank, to temporarily replace him / her until the client hires any substitute lawyer, unless the lawyer or his / her heirs nominate any substitute lawyer whose task would be to take the necessary actions for safeguarding their interests.

Part Nine

Disciplinary and Penal Liability

Chapter One

Disciplinary Liability

Article (86)

Any lawyer or legal consultant, who violates the duties of his / her profession, breaches any professional obligations, commits any of the prohibited acts set forth in this Decree Law or its Executive Regulations or the decisions to be issued in implementation hereof or the Code, or acts in any inappropriate way that spoils the prestige of the profession, shall be subject to any of the following disciplinary penalties:

1. Warning;
2. Administrative fine of not less than AED (5,000) five thousand dirhams, and not exceeding AED (30,000) thirty thousand dirhams;
3. Suspension from practicing the profession for not more than two years; or
4. Irrevocably removing his / her name from the Roll or Register.

The Executive Regulations of this Decree Law shall set out the effects of the suspension and removal of the lawyer's / legal consultant's name from the Roll.

Article (87)

1. The Committee may either of the penalties set forth in Articles (86.1) and (86.2) of this Decree Law, if it becomes convinced, in light of the evidence to be furnished by the party concerned, that the underlying violation is insignificant.
2. The lawyer and legal consultant may each file a grievance with the Minister against the committee's decision of conviction, within fifteen (15) days of the date of receiving the notice of the decision.
3. The Disciplinary Board may impose any of the penalties set forth in Article (86) of this Decree Law.

Article (88)

1. The complaint against the lawyer or legal consultant shall be filed with the committee against the prescribed fee, and the complainant may file a grievance against the committee's decision to dismiss the complaint with the Minister within fifteen (15) days of the date of being notified of the underlying decision.
2. If an insignificant violation is committed by the lawyer or legal consultant more than once, or if the violation is of a significant effect, the matter shall be escalated to the Public Prosecution.
3. Referral of the complaint to the Disciplinary Board shall be conducted based on an order of the Public Prosecution after an investigation to be conducted by the Public Prosecution, and the latter may order that the complaint be dismissed. In all cases, the committee shall be notified of the Public Prosecution's decision.

Article (89)

The lawyer's or legal consultant's resignation shall not be deemed a ground precluding the imposition of disciplinary measures against them, for any wrongful acts committed in the course of practicing the profession, within the three years following their resignation date.

Article (90)

Disciplinary Board

The disciplinary board shall be formed based on a resolution of the Minister, under the chairmanship of a chief judge of the Courts of Appeal, and shall have two members from the Courts of Appeal.

Article (91)

1. The lawyer or legal consultant, as the case may be, shall be notified to appear before the competent disciplinary board by personal delivery, via email, or by any means of modern communication, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the scheduled hearing date. If the lawyer or legal consultant concerned fails to appear, the board may proceed with the trial in absentia.
2. The lawyer or legal consultant, as the case may be, may appoint a lawyer to defend him / her before the disciplinary board, and the latter may order that the lawyer or legal consultant appear in person, if necessary.

Article (92)

The disciplinary board may, either sua sponte or based on the request of the Public Prosecution or the Lawyer or Legal Consultant - as the case may be – who is referred to the disciplinary board, summon any witnesses whose statement is deemed important. If any witness fails to appear without any acceptable justification, or if any witness appears but willfully fails to give his / her statement, the board may impose on him / her a fine of not less than AED (1,000) one thousand dirhams, and not exceeding AED (3,000) three thousand dirhams.

Article (93)

Hearings of the disciplinary board shall be held behind closed doors, and the decisions shall be issued after hearing the claims of the Public Prosecution and the defense of the Lawyer or Legal Consultant - as the case may be – who is referred to the disciplinary board, or his / her legal representative. The board's decision shall be substantiated.

Article (94)

The disciplinary decisions shall be served by the legal means of service, and the delivery of the decision's photocopy to the Lawyer or Legal Consultant - as the case may be – shall be deemed an actual service of the underlying decision. Disciplinary decisions shall not be challenged by way of opposition.

Article (95)

1. The Public Prosecution and the lawyer or legal consultant – as the case may be – who is found guilty, may appeal against the disciplinary board's decision before the Federal Supreme Court, within fifteen (15) days following the date of issue of the underlying decision with regard to the public prosecution, and within fifteen (15) days following the date of serving the decision upon, or delivering a copy of the decision to, the lawyer concerned. Such appeal shall be based on a statement of appeal to be filed with the Federal Supreme Court.
2. The appeal shall be heard by the criminal cassation chamber behind closed doors, in accordance with the rules set out in the Criminal Procedure Law referred to hereinabove.

Article (96)

1. The lawyer or legal consultant – as the case may be – against whom a final judgment is rendered by the competent court or a decision is issued by the disciplinary board removing his / her name from the Roll or Register, may, after the passage of at least three (3) years, submit an application to the Committee to have his / her name re-listed in the Roll or Register. The committee may admit such application and decide that the name be re-listed, unless the lawyer or legal consultant – as the case may be – is convicted on the grounds of a crime involving moral turpitude or breach of trust, even if rehabilitated.
2. If the committee decides that the application be rejected, the application may only be re-submitted after one year following the rejection date.
3. In all cases, the decision shall be substantiated.

Chapter Two

Criminal Liability and Penalties
